

Tristate Trauma Network

Building hope through system transformation

Don't forget to become a member by January 15th for reduced rates!

Greetings!

Happy New Year! I am very excited about the programming the Tristate Trauma Network has in store for you in 2016. We hope that you will join us in the events and learning experiences we have scheduled for the first part of the year. As a reminder, if you'd like to submit event information for our monthly newsletter, please submit it by the 15th of the month. Wishing you a year filled with joy and peace!

Stressed Brains Can't Learn! Paper Tigers Documentary Screening February 2, 2016

TRISTATE TRAUMA NETWORK, MINDPEACE, & UNITED WAY OF GREATER CINCINNATI COLLABORATION

View the film that has the entire country talking about trauma-informed care in schools. Paper Tigers follows a year in the life of an alternative high school in Walla Walla, WA, that has radically changed its approach to disciplining students who are struggling with the dark legacy of Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs). Since its premiere in May 2015, more than 250 screening events have been held across the country. You won't find this film on the internet. It can only be viewed at a sponsored screening event. Join us on February 2, 2016 from 4:30-7:00pm at United Way's Convening Center to see how this school became a promising model for how to break the cycles of poverty, violence, and disease that affect families.
