October 2017 Newsletter

Greetings!

It's an exciting time for TTN as a an agency. This is the same sentence I started last month's newsletter with and I'm using it again because the excitement continues. TTN just established its own office in Northern Kentucky!!! And by "just" I mean I started moving in over the weekend :) We will continue to use One Community One Family, Inc. in Batesville, IN as our fiscal agent, but have a new "home."

Our new address is:
Tristate Trauma Network
71 Cavalier Blvd. Suite 209
Florence, KY 41042

You can now find me there when I'm not out and about attending community meetings, hosting trainings, and meeting with agencies. The Board Members and I are excited to be able to give you a location where you can visit and meet with TTN Staff, come chat about your individual or your agency's trauma-informed care needs, and find resources (including a book and video lending library I'm putting together). Give me a couple of weeks to get moved, get some more furniture, and get everything situated, then email me to come out for a visit. I'd love to see you!

Have a great month and hopefully I'll see you at our Fall Conference on October 30th!

P.S. Registration is also open for our Quarterly Meeting on December 1st and our 2017-2018 Trauma-Responsive Care Certification (TRCC) Series which starts on December 6th. Visit our Events page to register for any of these upcoming events. And if you haven't already, Like Us on Facebook for event information (ours and others') and lots of trauma-related articles and resources.

TIME IS RUNNING OUT!
2017 Fall Conference "Trauma-Informed Care: Hope for Healing"
Registration Is Only Open through October 13th!

If you haven't registered for our Fall Conference, now is the time! We now have 200 people already registered, and it's no wonder because we have a great lineup of speakers, as well as a Self-Care mini-session and self-care themed door prize raffle to end the day. In addition to gaining new knowledge, learning new skills, and connecting with other professionals and community members who also have an interest in trauma-informed care, you could win one of 20 great self-care gifts donated by local businesses, TTN Member agencies, and TTN Staff and Board Members: a free 60-minute massage from a local private masseuse; a Mitchell's Salon, Woodhouse Day Spa, Inner Peace Holistic Spa, or Michelle's Oasis Skincare and Waxing gift card; one of three free services at Synergy Holistic Health; Mary Kay skincare products; a Lunch/Dinner Out package that includes 3 restaurant gift cards; a Mindfulness basket; a Relaxation basket with tea, mugs, colored pencils and adult coloring books; 2 tickets to the Newport Aquarium and more. All items have a minimum value of $50. You get one raffle ticket just for attending and visiting our vendor booths, and have the ability to buy more to increase your chances. You must participate in the self-care mini-session and be present at end of day to win.

NEW! Items for Sale available at the Conference this year:

- 1) Tristate Trauma Network Insulated Mugs - $10
- 2) Thistle Farms scented soy candles and lotions made by trauma survivors (victims of human trafficking, domestic violence, and sexual assault) offered at a lower than retail rate due to TTN's recent partnership with Thistle Farms. Candles will be sold for $20 and lotions for $15. The scents are wonderful and make great gifts for self or others! Check out items, as well as the Thistle Farms mission, on the Thistle Farms website.
- 3) All 3 of Lisa Ferentz's books! At breaks and after the conference, you could even track her down to sign yours for you.

Visit our Events page to learn more about our featured speaker, trauma expert Lisa Ferentz, and to be directed to the Fall Conference Event page, where you'll find full details and a link to registration. Cost is $85 for TTN Members and $105 for non-Members. CEUs are available for specific disciplines in all three states. Info about CEU approvals is on the Fall Conference Event page.

We hope to see you there!

A Difference!*

With an increased need for Trauma Education and Services, our membership is a must have for agencies and individuals. As professionals you strive to serve your client with state of the art techniques that heal and you must have a resource that can provide the education and the networking resources you need to do just that.

Our goal as an agency is to provide the education you are asking for, to become the clearinghouse you are looking for, and to serve the needs of our community. The Tristate Trauma Network unifies state, regional and local efforts in Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana relating to trauma and toxic stress. It convenes diverse sectors of the community to establish a shared understanding of the causes of trauma and toxic stress, as well as the solutions to reducing their prevalence and impact. It serves as a catalyst for collaborative efforts to prevent and address trauma, helps all voices to be heard, and engages in all sectors of the community in working together.
